Weymouth Township School Permission to Use Student Images and Media

Please read over the following as to Weymouth School’s use of student photographs and media in print and digital form. The use as described on this form implies consent to the examples listed below. Please only return the bottom portion if you wish to opt-out and not have your student’s picture used for school and educational purposes.

Examples of how your child’s image/photograph or student work may be used:

- Appear in a printed publication such as a class picture, bulletin board, or yearbook.
- Utilized as a demonstration or presentation in class or for the student body.
- Utilized on the school’s website, weymouthtownshipschool.org, to highlight student activities and achievements.
- Appear on video/electronic image made during a student presentation of a project, or in broadcasts or video/electronic images within the building (ie. weekly announcements, the lobby display, end of the school year video).
- Other educational activity as WTS deems necessary.

Your child’s name or other identifying information WILL NOT be included with your child’s image/photograph when published on the Web.

RELEASE AUTHORIZATION

The notice above grants WTS approval to publicize without prior notification and remains in effect until WTS receives written notice that you would like this revoked, such as the opt-out below.
